THOUSANDS OF HUNGARIAN WORKERS LAUNCH WALKOUT AGAINST REGIME OF KADAR

BULLETIN

Vienna (AP)—The Hungarian government announced over Budapest radio today that property of all persons who have left Hungary since the start of the rebellion Oct. 23 will be seized by the state. The action was announced as the government proceeded with all means, including the transporting of workers to their jobs in Russian army trucks, to smash a 48-hour general strike called by the Budapest Central Workers' Council. More than 134,000 refugees, who have registered in Austria, presumably will be affected by the new government measure unless they return before March 31, 1957. This is the amnesty date previously set by the government for persons who have fled from Hungary. Janitors in Hungary were ordered to report within three days the names of all persons who have left their homes. Authorities then will make an inventory of all property left there.

By RICHARD KASISORKE

Budapest (AP)—Tens of thousands of Hungarian workers today launched a widespread protest strike in defiance of the Russian-imposed government of Premier Janos Kadar.

Transportation in Budapest was badly crippled, but the work stoppage did not appear to be 100 per cent effective. Some business activity apparently was continuing under the pressure of guns of the Hungarian police and Soviet troops.

But many workers did not report to their factories, or sat idle when they reached their posts.

The call to strike for 48 hours beginning last midnight was issued by the Budapest Central Workers' Council to protest the "anti-peoples, anti-workers activities" of the government.

It was not immediately known how effective the strike appeal had proved in the provinces, although there were reports that stoppages had started yesterday in some outlying towns.

The government again clamped down with a partial blackout on long distance telephone service outside the country.

The Kadar government replied to the general strike call with new repressive measures, including a decree of martial law, the arrests of some worker leaders and a decree dissolving the Central Workers' Council and its regional bodies.

Refugees crossing into Austria from Hungary said the strike appeared to be spreading over the country despite Kadar's martial law decree and possible Soviet reprisals.

Hungarians who left Budapest by train Monday said workers all along the route reported they had been alerted to the strike appeal.

Austrian railway workers returning from the Hungarian border station of Hegyeshalom reported that work in that town was at a complete standstill. The stationmaster at Nickelsdorf said he also had been told that a train scheduled to arrive there from Hungary would not be running.

The government-controlled Budapest radio broadcast repeated appeals to workers not to join in the "attack against the people."

United Nations, N. Y. (AP)—The Hungarian delegation today walked out of the General Assembly in protest against what it called U. N. interference in Hungary's internal affairs.

The surprise move came as the 70-nation Assembly debated a U. S.-sponsored move to condemn the Soviet Union for refusing to withdraw its armed forces from Hungary.

Hungarian Foreign Minister Imre Horvath led his delegation from the room after charging that some delegations, influenced by the United States, "have attempted to interfere in Hungary's domestic affairs."

"We reject these attempts and shall continue to do so in the future," he said.

Horvath told newsmen later he planned to leave tomorrow for Budapest.

In his statement to the Assembly, he declared that the U. N. had offended the Hungarian delegation in a way inconsistent with the (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Search Launched For Unreported Jet Plane

A search of Northwestern Pennsylvania and adjacent forest areas in New York State began at 11 a. m. today for a missing jet plane unreported since it radioed into Goshen, Ind. on Sunday.

The plane, a T-38, was en route east from Spokane, Wash., when it disappeared. After contacting Goshen radio tower the aircraft missed check points at Cleveland and Bradford.

A search by Civil Air Patrol got underway this morning, according to a report from Fredonia CAP office.

Meenest Thief Returns Stolen Dystrophy Fund

Amsterdam, N. Y. (AP)—

The daily Amsterdam Recorder and Democrat described the thief who took a muscular dystrophy fund coin box from a food store as "the meanest person in the world."

A bundle of newspapers left outside the same store contained an envelope. Inside was $2.49 and a note: "From the meanest person in the world."

The newspaper comment followed the theft Dec. 3.

Prisoner in San Francisco Admits Slaying 5 Persons

San Francisco (AP)—Stephen Nash, who says he killed five persons because "I'm as rotten as they make them," is refusing to make any more admissions unless officials pay off in cash.

"From now on, everything say costs $50 a sentence. The price of confessions is $1,000," he told Kenneth Wells, Sacramento district attorney yesterday. That was his way of refusing to say anything more about a Sacramento County hobo jungle killing he already had admitted.

A Los Angeles grand jury has indicated the gaunt 33-year-old floater on charges of killing Larry Rise, 10, under a Santa Monica pier, and of John William Berg, 27, a Long Beach hair dresser.

In San Francisco Nash pointed out a spot in the bay, directing a Navy frog diver to a car holding the body of Robert T. Eche, 21, of San Francisco. Last night a grand jury charged him with killing Eche.

Eche disappeared Aug. 18; Nash said he stabbed Eche because the college graduate was making such low wages.

Wells tried unsuccessfully to get Nash to tell details of the killing of Floyd Leroy Barnett in a hobo jungle in October, 1955. Nash previously had admitted the killing.

He also told police he killed a man named Burns. The body of William C. Burns, 23, a transient was found in the Richmond, Calif., inner harbor Jan. 24.

Cumberland Senator May Run For Governor

Harrisburg (AP)—Sen. Wade (R-Cumberland) announced his resignation today as general agent for the Ohio National Life Insurance Co. amid speculative reports he may run for governor in 1958 and needs more time for politics.

Wade, who was re-elected in November to a fifth term in the Senate, ran for the Republican nomination for lieutenant-governor in 1950 with backing of the Grundy wing of the party. He was defeated by Lloyd H. Wood, who ran unsuccessfully for governor two years ago.

Wade's resignation from the insurance firm will become effective on Jan. 1. At that time he will be succeeded as general agent by a brother, Ken B. Wade, formerly division manager at Lancaster.

TYPHOON DEATH TOLL

Manila (AP)—The death toll from Typhoon Polly rose to 26 today as communications with outlying areas were restored. Most casualties were in Camarines Norte and Sur provinces of southeast Luzon Island. The typhoon's force diminished as it blew out into the South China Sea.

Bus Rate Increase Is Sought By City Lines

Harrisburg (AP)—The Public Utility Commission today was asked by the Warren City Lines, Inc., to authorize a $3,500 annual bus rate increase, effective Jan. 9.

The firm proposes to drop a 12½-cent token and use only its 15-cent cash fare within Warren.

On trips between the borough and outside points the fare would go up from 15 to 20 cents. Rides between points entirely beyond Warren limits would advance from 10 to 15 cents. School fares would be raised from 7½ to 10 cents or 20 rides for $2 instead of $1.50.

Dulles Urges NATO To Adopt Moral Pressure

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

Paris (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today internal pressures behind the Iron Curtain may well topple Soviet communism and end the dangerous division of the globe.

He urged the foreign ministers of 15 Atlantic Pact countries assembled in conference here to use every form of moral pressure to assist these forces, which he said he has good reason to believe are undermining the Soviet system.

But the secretary, in a speech optimistic and almost religious in tone, warned that the threat of internal unrest might tempt Kremlin rules to take some risks abroad as a diversion and thereby increase the threat of war.

Dulles, without directly mentioning British and French intervention in Egypt, denounced countries which deliberately resort to force as an instrument of national policy, even though they believe their cause to be just. He pleaded with all to maintain the United Nations and obey the moral principles of its charter.

If the countries of the world failed to do this, he declared, it would mean disaster. He said destruction of the U. N. or disregard of its principles would lead almost certainly to global war.

Dulles spoke at a closed session of NATO's Council of Ministers which was also addressed by British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau, Italian Foreign Minister Gaetano Martino and Norwegian Minister Halvard Lange.

If the West follows the course outlined, Dulles said, its cause will prevail and the dangerous division of the world will come to an end.

NATO officials gave the account of Dulles' speech.

Two main tasks confronted the Allied statesmen:

1. How to rebuild the unity and efficiency of the alliance, weakened by political squabbles and the economic crisis facing Western Europe as a result of the cut in the supply of oil from the Middle East.

2. How to meet and beat the challenge of post-Stalinist Communism, with its shifting methods of force, political subversion and economic penetration on an ever widening front.

TAX DECISION

Harrisburg (AP)—The Dauphin County Court has ruled that the state realty transfer tax must be paid before a deed may be recorded in reorganization proceedings under the Federal Bankruptcy Act.

The decision was handed down yesterday in the suit of Charles M. Lake, trustee in reorganization of the Automotive Service of Reading, Inc., and the California Oil Co., against the State Revenue Department and Leroy W. Fronheiser, recorder of deeds of Berks County.

Search Continues For Missing Plane And 62 Occupants

Vancouver, B. C. (AP)—Ground search parties prepared today to enter the rugged Mt. Silvertip area about 125 miles east of here to look for a Trans-Canada airliner missing with 62 occupants since Sunday night. Eight of the 59 passengers were Americans.

Search leaders said their "most promising lead" was a report of a "big blast" in the vicinity of 8,550-foot Mt. Silvertip. The report came from nine persons who were at a ski lodge on the Hope-Princeton highway north of the mountain.

People at the lodge said they heard the blast Sunday night soon after the four-engine North Star, Canadian version of the American DC4, radioed it was returning to Vancouver with an inboard motor disabled.

RCAF Squadron Leader G. L. Sheahan, in charge of the search, said it will be necessary to get into the area where the reported "blast" occurred before it snows again and added: "If we don't, we're beat."

PRESLEY BUTTONS!

Philadelphia (AP)—It can cost more to hate Elvis Presley than to love him here. A downtown stand sells "I hate Elvis" buttons for 15 cents. "I love Elvis" emblems cost only a dime. The vendor says he had to cut the price of the "love" buttons because they weren't selling.

The Ed Stokes Fund

The response continues.

A wish for speedy rehabilitation from hundreds of kind and generous hearts in this area manifested itself in Ed Stokes Fund contributions amounting to $3,730.

The sum represents a long and much-needed step toward remaking a useful life for a man who lost both his arms above the elbow in a tragic mishap Oct. 28.

Ed was forced into the teeth of a tractor-driven power saw used to rip timber. Since then his courage and uncompromising faith in the future has been a source of admiration to all those around him.

But rehabilitation is expensive. Mechanical arms are a custom-built item and very expensive. Beyond that, Ed needs a boost before he can once again be expected to earn his living.

Meanwhile, he is helped with such simple everyday tasks as eating, dressing, opening doors, etc., buoyed on by the knowledge that his dozens of friends are pulling for him.

Any contribution, large or small, cash or check made out to ED STOKES FUND may be sent to Warren Times-Mirror. Ed and wife, Mabel, have a hard row to hoe.

Latest list of contributors includes:

Quaintance Class, First Baptist Church $5.00; Employees of Thomas Flexible Coupling $31.00; Clemens Class, Grace Methodist Church $10.00; Stone House Gift Shop $5.00; A Cheer for Ed Stokes from Barnes, Pa., $1.00; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Campbell $10.00; Lundgren Motor Sales, Akeley, Pa. $10; 40 Et 8 Auto Show Committee $25.00; Warren County Gold Star Mothers $5.00; Teamsters and Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers Union No. 963 of this area with the main office at Bradford, Pa. 6 Boynton St. $15.00; Cash $2.00; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kibby, RD No. 1, Pittsfield $5.00; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dufresne $5.

Members Are Reminded by Solicitor That Subsequent Action Could Alter Decision

Warren Area Joint School Board "morally obligated" itself last evening to build the proposed new high school building on the Swick site.

By a vote of 27 to 9 the Joint Board approved a recommendation of the Joint Committee that the so-called Swick site "be surveyed in connection with engineering and architectural studies to the end that the Board may hereinafter decide what precise amount of land the location thereof would be required for school purposes."

School Board Solicitor R. Pierson Eaton reminded Board members that the action taken last evening was not final and that subsequent votes could change the decision. But he did point out that the Board had at last narrowed the field of possible sites under active consideration to only one, namely the Swick location.

Board members also voted $5 to 1 to contract the architectural firm of Meyers, Kidder, Werle and Ellenberger of Erie "to proceed at this time with definite plans for a new high school. Be it resolved that the Joint Committee proceed at its convenience to contract for architectural and engineering services in connection with a new high school upon the Swick site, so-called, for the purpose of determining precisely the nature of a high school building to be constructed and the amount and location of land requisite for school purposes."

Lone Board member to vote against the architectural firm proposal was Board president Melvin G. Keller who, despite his continuous opposition to the Swick site, was given a vote of confidence and unanimously retained as president of the group.

Faith in the judgment of Mr. Keller was mirrored also in the retention of Lee Schaffer as Board vice president, despite his continuous objections to the Swick location.

Mr. Keller mentioned before the vote on the Joint Committee Swick site recommendation that he had been informed just that afternoon by an official of Pennsylvania Gas Company that a 12-inch gas main carrying the highly inflammable and explosive vapor at 400 pounds pressure crossed the Swick site. (Even though this property is condemned for school use, the pipe must be removed at Joint Board expense, namely taxpayers.)

Actually the vote in favor of the proposal was surprisingly close due to numerous absences. The overall vote of a two-thirds majority was readily secured 27 to 9. However, two-thirds of the nine Boards represented in the Jointure also had (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Cold Wave Reported To Be Moving Out of West

By The Associated Press

Strong winds carried a cold wave into the central section of the nation today.

A storm center that was moving eastward across Lake Superior this morning set off winds with gusts of 45 to more than 60 m.p.h. from the Dakotas to the upper Mississippi Valley.

Icy air from Canada swept in behind the advancing cold front, southward into Nebraska and Wyoming and eastward into the northern section of the Mississippi Valley.

Printers, stereotypers, engravers, pressmen and mailers returned to work last night after the picketing ended.

Jack Torrence of Chicago, an international vice president of the pressman's union, said the return to work was arranged following an agreement that his union would negotiate for the carriers.

Agreement Ends Strike At The Kansas City Star

Kansas City (AP)—The Kansas City Star today published its first edition since a picket line was thrown around its building Saturday by some of its distributors.

Printers, stereotypers, engravers, pressmen and mailers returned to work last night after the picketing ended.

Jack Torrence of Chicago, an international vice president of the pressman's union, said the return to work was arranged following an agreement that his union would negotiate for the carriers.

Hospital Santa Claus In Robe and Pajamas

Butler (AP)—Santa Claus usually wears big black boots and a red suit but his costume at the Butler Veterans Administration Hospital is a robe and pajamas.

For the third straight year veteran-patients have adopted an orphanage for a "turn-about" Christmas gift. It is their way of saying thanks for community gifts directed their way.

This year the youngsters at St. Paul's Catholic Orphanage at Crafton, near Pittsburgh, will be the recipients of the veterans' gift.

It is a new kindergarten and nursery playground fully equipped with slides, sandboxes, toys and other items that mean fun for children.

In 1954 the veterans at Butler scraped together $340 to equip a woodwork shop for a boys' orphanage at Zelleford and last year sent $400 for an outdoor recreation area to a Presbyterian Home at Mars.

Council Grants Pay Hikes For Boro Workers

Approximately 70 Borough employees were granted an across the board cost of living wage increase at Warren Borough Council meeting last night.

The increase amounts to about $10 a month or 5 cents an hour.

Borough Council also purchased a new police car from Dan's Chevrolet for $1,190 plus trade-in. Dan's was sole bidder.

Council accepted another bid of $4,032 from Buffalo Scale Company for a new truck weighing apparatus. Other bid was $4,069 from Howe Scale Co., also of Buffalo.

Ambulances operating in Warren Borough will have to be licensed next year under terms of another resolution passed yesterday evening. The firm operating ambulances will have to pay $1 a year for licensing and have $100,000 insurance for injury to one person, $300,000 for injury to two or more persons and $10,000 property damage insurance. Failure to comply with license stipulations will result in a $100 fine.

All ambulance drivers and attendants must also be licensed at a cost of $1 per year. (This does not apply to non-profit organizations such as Russell and Youngville volunteers.)

To implement this resolution and see it carried out properly, Council appointed a three-man ambulance committee. Named to serve were: Hospital Administrator Joseph A. Williamson for 3 years, Dr. W. S. Walters for two years and E. F. MacKendrick for one year. In the future all appointments will be for three years.

In another resolution, Councilmen authorized the annual $5 per capita tax which brings in approximately $41,000 yearly to village coffers.

Five-Year-Old Boy Burns To Death In Fire at Jamestown

Jamestown, N. Y.—A five-year-old boy burned and smothered to death in a bedroom closet of his home at 245 Huxley street Monday morning while his mother rescued two other children and fled the flaming structure.

Chautauque County Coroner Frederick B. Mattison, who issued a certificate of accidental death, ruled that William Fain died of a combination of burns and suffocation.

His tiny body was found huddled beneath a pile of charred clothes in a closet joining one of two bedrooms gutted by the blaze. Firemen said it was believed the child had been playing with matches.

Mrs. Dorothy Fain, the mother, suffered a cut hand in gathering up Robert, 3, and Calvin Douglas, 1½, and carrying them to safety.

The blaze was discovered about 10 A. M. William, discovered by firemen who quelled the blaze, was rushed to Jamestown General Hospital, but was dead on arrival.

Fire Companies 1 and 5 and Ladder 1 were at the scene. The blaze destroyed contents of the two bedrooms, blistered paint in the kitchen and caused heavy smoke damage throughout the one-story frame house owned by Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wonderling, Mrs. Fain's parents.

Friends came immediately to the aid of the family Jack Gallagher, owner of Jax's Place, where the dead boy's grandmother is employed as a cook, started a fund to help them.

He said Monday night that contributions of money and clothing, especially children's clothing, may be left at his restaurant at 120 East Second street, or by contacting him.

William Fain was born in Jamestown April 18, 1951, the son of General Fain, Jr., and Dorothy Wonderling Fain. Besides his brothers, maternal grandparents and parents, he is survived by his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. General Fain, Sr., of Anniston, Ala.

The youngest attended kindergarten at Persell School. Funeral arrangements by Boyd Funeral Home are incomplete pending arrival of the child's father from Alabama.

Important Last-Minute Reminders On Yule Mailings

Warren, Pennsylvania

December 9, 1956

Editor of the Times-Mirror,
Warren, Pennsylvania

Dear Editor:

I wonder why a suggestion that was made once to build the new High School in the block where the old South Street School is located did not seem to receive much consideration. This location is not too high nor too low; but it is a good, dry, level site in a section of Warren that is growing.

Sincerely,

CITIZEN

Warren, Pa.
Dec. 10, 1956

Editor, Times-Mirror:
I am sorry the "Irate Teenager" does not like my town. I was born and reared in Warren. Went to its public schools and graduated from its High School. I have never found Warren a dull town. In fact I have chosen it in which to rear my own family.

I have worked in large cities and small towns. In Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Virginia, West Virginia and Maryland. Traveled in forty-three states of the United States and was in the Army Air Force for almost four years. Have been in Canada, Mexico, Jamaica, Australia, India, Egypt, Palestine, Trans-Jordan, Libya, Tunis and Italy, and I like Warren best of all.

There are really many more things to do in Warren than twenty years ago. I believe the young folks, and some older ones too, have been steered down the wrong track because it isn't for the citizens of Warren to entertain the teenagers. Nor to hand things to them without their turning a hand. If this young man will make himself known to me, I will accept his challenge on how to fill his spare time with fun and happiness. And beat this boredom he is so wrongly attributing to our community.

Signed—JAMES KELLER

Hal Boyle's Column

New York, (AP)—The husbands of America may hate me for disclosing this, but—

Diamonds are a better buy this year than Santa Claus will probably find them for many a Christmas to come.

Most of women's other necessities for a rich full life—coffee, brassieres, motor cars and toe-nail polish—are higher than they were 10 years ago. Diamonds are cheaper.

A ¼ carat diamond that sold for $110 to $225 in 1946, during the postwar marriage surge, sells for $90 to $220 today. A one-carat diamond that ranged from $685 to $1,275 in 1946 can be had now for $545 to $1,175.

But not for long, an industry spokesman warns.

"This will be the last year for a long time in which diamond prices will be lower than they were in the top price year of 1946," said

Albert Haase, president of the Jewelry Industry Council.

"The number of marriages is increasing again, and should continue rising until about 1975. And the demand is getting bigger in other ways. More diamonds are being used in wedding rings. Men, too, are again wearing more diamonds—in cufflinks, lodge rings and fraternal pins."

As a matter of fact diamonds were regarded as a man's best friend until about 500 years ago.

The king of gems was reserved for the adornment of the male sex. Women were nothing but chattels, and to give them diamonds would have seemed as outlandish as to put a gold ring in a pig's nose.

The gal who changed this sensible way of life was named Agnes Sorel, a brassy dame in the court of King Charles VII, who ruled France from 1422 to 1461. The hum!

Aggie had her eyes out for dopey Charley, but she was no prettier than a dozen other dames with the same idea. What could she do to charm him?

Well, sir, she borrowed all the diamonds owned by her male relatives—and may they burn where they belong for going along with her skulduggery—took them to a jeweler and had him secretly make them into a necklace.

Then she put them around her throat over a low-necked dress, and waited into court. The courtiers stood ready to run their swords through this brazen jade who dared to wear diamonds. But first they looked at the King to see how he took it.

The simple-minded monarch stared, then, dazzled, smiled and beckoned Agnes to him. Aggie had won, and lived happily ever

Employment in October Shows Decrease Over That of 1955

Pennsylvania's employment this October was 23,300 above that of October 1955, Secretary of Labor and Industry John R. Torquato announced. The current month's employment level was estimated at 4,368,800, or 1,100 higher than the previous month's employment. Continued seasonal declines in farm employment as well as in self-employed, unpaid family, and domestic workers were more than compensated for by net increases in manufacturing and non-manufacturing industries.

Factory employment was 5,000 higher than a year ago. The October employment level of 1,500,800 was 5,100 over that of the previous month. The electrical machinery industry group dropped 2,800 employees and the food products industry group dropped 1,000 employees for the only significant employment losses. Noteworthy employment gains were registered in transportation equipment, up 2,100; nonelectrical machinery, up 1,500; miscellaneous manufacturing, up 1,200; fabricated metal products up 1,100; furniture, up 1,100.

The nonmanufacturing industries employment for October was 23,400 above that of October 1955. A net increase of 20,600 over the September employment level brought current employment up to 2,275,500. The retail trades led the rise with an increase of 10,700 employees as the stores hired temporary help for the holiday season. State and local government employment was up 7,100 due to a seasonal expansion of educational facilities. The service and miscellaneous group increased employment by 4,200. Contract construction registered the lone significant decline with a seasonal loss of 2,200 workers.

Average weekly earnings in manufacturing industries amounted to $83.03 for the period ending in mid-October. This represented a new all-time high for factory work-

ONE KILLED IN ELEVATED FIRE—Firemen probe through one of the two wooden cars of a Chicago elevated commuter train which caught fire during the morning rush hour. One man, the motorman, was burned to death. Forty-nine other persons were injured in the flames and panic that followed. Chicago transit authorities said "an electric flash of some kind" in the motorman's cab caused the flash fire.

Sylvania Planning New Multi-Million-Dollar Atomic Center For Research at Andover, Mass.

(Special correspondence to The Times-Mirror)

Andover, Mass.—Sylvania Electric Products Inc. has announced that it has taken options on a 150-acre site in the town of Andover, as the proposed location for a new multi-million-dollar atomic center for the purpose of expanded research, development, and production activities in the atomic energy field.

Walter E. Kingston, general manager of Sylvania's Atomic Energy Division, said that the options have been taken by Sylvania pending the formation of Sylvania-Corning Nuclear Corporation, which will be organized as a jointly-owned company in the next several months by Sylvania and Corning Glass Works.

Mr. Kingston said that Sylvania will now seek formal action by town and other officials concerning the project.

"The proposed new center, which would concentrate on the development and production of nuclear fuel elements and components, would be the outstanding facility of its type in the world," Mr. Kingston said. "Its five modernistic buildings, totaling 150,000 square feet, would be arranged in campus-like surroundings. They would be designed and equipped to make the most effective use of the reservoir of outstanding scientific and engineering skills being brought together in the Sylvania-Corning joint enterprise."

Operations in the new facility would start early in 1958. The center would be the administrative headquarters of the new company and would include buildings for manufacturing, pilot production, advanced engineering, and supporting services, as well as housing administrative, sales, and other activities, Mr. Kingston said.

Initially, 300 people would be employed at the atomic center, about one-third being engineers and other professionally trained personnel. Within five years' time, total employment would reach about 800 to 1,000. "About one-half of the personnel initially at the facility would come from Sylvania's present Bayside, Long Island, atomic energy laboratory, and from Corning's atomic activities in Corning, N. Y.," Mr. Kingston noted. "We expect that the remaining personnel, as well as most of the personnel needed in future growth, would be from the local area in which the center is located." Sylvania's other atomic energy facility, at Hicksville, Long Island, will continue its operations as part of the new organization.

Mr. Kingston emphasized that the new facility "would not be working with materials or products which could constitute any sort of hazard, radioactive or otherwise, to the community."

OPEN YOUR HEARTS

Thus far Americans have responded nobly and generously to requests for all kinds of assistance to the Hungarian refugees streaming into Austria and thence to many other lands. Now they have their biggest chance of all to lend a helping hand.

A special five-million-dollar emergency appeal has been undertaken for Hungarian relief by the American Red Cross.

To aid the International Red Cross Committee in providing daily meals for perhaps 200,000 persons within Hungary by this coming January.

To provide food, shelter and clothing, not to mention medical care, for up to 100,000 Hungarians in Austria over a considerable span of time.

And to enable the U. S. Red Cross to go on helping those refugees who come to America under the expanded program just announced by President Eisenhower. Some 21,500 may now be admitted.

Though the Hungarian relief crisis is but a little more than a month old, the American Red Cross already has appropriated more than $300,000 to buy medicines, drugs, hospital equipment, food and clothing. These outlays have been pooled with the resources of the Red Cross from 40 other nations.

The International Red Cross Committee, acting in Hungary through agreement with the Hungarian Communist authorities, has taken charge of distributing all international relief supplies.

In the United States our own Red Cross has worked from the start with government, military and welfare authorities to distribute clothing and other essentials to refugees coming here.

The agency also has assisted U. S. citizens in efforts to contact relatives in Hungary, and has offered free cable communication for refugees in Austria to their relatives in this country.

Every Red Cross chapter in America is serving as a key point in the five-million-dollar emergency fund drive. To help in this immensely worthy cause, to let courageous free peoples know what you think of their brave defiance of Red tyranny, you need only contact your local chapter and offer your contribution.

An excellent example of democracy in action was manifested last evening when the Warren Area Joint School Board, after voting 29 to 9 to approve a recommendation of the special committee that the so-called Swick site be surveyed as a location for the proposed new High School, gave a vote of confidence to Melvin G. Keller, who has consistently opposed the selection of the property for the new construction, by re-electing him president for another term. Keller cast the lone negative Warren board ballot against the Swick site earlier in the evening. The vote on the re-election was unanimous.

Considering the difficulty experienced over a period of years in securing capable personnel to maintain both the Police and Fire Departments at satisfactory strength, compared with salaries offered for similar work in other communities, it would seem that members of Council deserve a word of praise for their action in upping the salary scale for these important borough employees, along with those in the other Departments, including Streets and Parks.

That large greeting sign in Crescent Park, which was damaged quite extensively by wind and rain over the weekend, has been completely renovated by the Jaycees. It was noticed last evening. All missing letters have been replaced.

In case you haven't discovered it, lines have started forming at the windows at the Post Office. It appears it is too late to do your Christmas mailing without having to take your turn!

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Then he answered and spake unto me saying, This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts—Zechariah 4:6.

We cannot live on probabilities. The faith in which we can live bravely and in peace must be a certainty, so far as it processes to be a faith at all or it is nothing.—Franklin

Give Until It Hurts --- They Did

Here and There

Here's an excellent example to demonstrate how one community confronted with the realization that it had no practicing physician met the situation. As an emergency action during the current shortage of resident physicians, in Johnsonburg, the New York and Pennsylvania Company is conducting a series of first aid refresher sessions. A class of 22 employees representing all areas of the paper mill, have been attending the two-hour classes which convene in the company's conference rooms at 7 each Tuesday. The complete course, which consists of approximately 30 hours of instruction in all phases of first aid procedure, is under the direction of Paper Department Supervisor, Harrison T. Beardsley. Mr. Beardsley is a Red Cross certified first aid instructor and has had wide experience in first aid training.

The snowfall over the weekend reminds that E. J. Henry, Penn.

sylvania State Police commissioner, has come up with some winter driving tips that he says have proven themselves through the years. In urging all drivers to abide by them, Col. Henry sums up his recommendations in six concise paragraphs: 1. Rely on yourself to turn in a driving performance of which you can be proud, adjusting your speed to varying road, weather and traffic conditions. 2. Get the "feel" of the road when pavements are slippery by tying brakes occasionally while driving slowly and away from traffic. 3. Pump your brakes, to slow down or stop. Jamming them can cause the wheels to lock and throw you into a dangerous skid. 4. Follow other vehicles at a safe distance, anticipating that the driver ahead may do something unexpected. 5. Signal your intention to turn or stop well in advance, making sure you can see danger in time to avoid trouble. 6. Keep your windshield and windows clear, making sure you can see danger in time to avoid trouble.

Speaking of the excitement aroused by the incipient gang war among youngsters of High School age last week it is interesting to note that a permanent curfew law was passed by the Philadelphia city council recently. The curfew affects those under 17 years old in public places unaccompanied by an adult, between 10:30 p. m. and 6:00 a. m., Sunday through Thursday, and midnight to six a. m. Friday and Saturday. The law, first passed in January, 1955, subjects violators to fines.

The Pennsylvania Health, Physical Education and Recreational Association has cited President Eisenhower for his campaign to improve the physical fitness of America's youth. Dr. Shane McCarthy, director of the National Council on Youth Fitness, accepted the annual award in behalf of the President, at a ceremony in Erie. It was presented at the association's annual meeting last week.

Ike and Nehru Will Meet
For Mutual Selling Job

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Pretty soon two men are going to sit down for a private bull-session which could materially change America's relations with the Far East.

"An informal, two-man exchange of ideas," is a White House insider's description of the expected character of the visit of India's Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru.

The arrangements for the visit are designed to permit maximum time for the two heads of state to sit down and talk things out.

There will only be one or two sessions participated in by other officials.

One of the things the especially requested was a visit of Nehru to the Eisenhower farm in Gettysburg. Certainly this will provide an ideal setting for private, informal conversations.

BOTH NEHRU AND the President decided in advance, in an exchange of notes, that there should be a minimum of strenuous social events. There has to be some pomp and social routine in connection with such an important visit. But it will be kept to a minimum.

The character of this meeting, which Ike himself has created, is in line with the President's recent decision to take a more active personal part in foreign affairs.

Observers are delighted at the way the President plans to handle Nehru's four-day stay in Washington. Ike is at his best in the informal man-to-man meeting, uncluttered by protocol and formalities. If anybody is able to sell America's point of view on international politics to Nehru it will be Ike, under these conditions.

THE VISIT is a mutual selling job.

From India's point of view it is also a good arrangement. Nehru's stand and statements on world issues, which he has made formally in public, have at best been misunderstood in the U. S. by the American public and by U. S. officials. If he has been misunderstood this is his chance to set the record straight.

This meeting will give Nehru the opportunity to explain more clearly just where he stands on such things as his attitude toward Russia. In this effort he can count on an attentive audience in Ike. One of the President's great personality assets is the ability to be a good listener at the proper time.

No formal agenda of topics to be discussed has been prepared. One thing that will not come into the conversation—in sharp contrast to most visits of other foreign officials—is the question of any U. S. loans or more aid to India. A spokesman for the Indian embassy says that this topic has been ruled out.

IKE AND NEHRU have met before and there is a cordial personal feeling between the two men. So the upcoming meetings will at least start off in an atmosphere of mutual friendliness.

It is reported that Nehru thinks Ike is a tremendous force for peace in the world today. He believes that the President is a symbol of integrity all over the world and has already done much to ease world tensions.

Ike has expressed his respect for Nehru's intelligence and thinks that in many cases Nehru's stand on various world problems has been misunderstood and misinterpreted.

No formal treaty or written agreement is going to come from the meeting of the two men, spokesmen for the State Department say. Everyone will be more than satisfied if a mutual understanding between them is the result.

Nehru will fly to Washington from London on Ike's personal plane the Columbine. He will be here four days and then spend two days in New York.

—Portrait by Siegfried
MRS. W. ARNOLD SWANSON

First Presbyterian church in Jamestown was the setting for a beautiful wedding November 24, when Patricia Jean Harner, daughter of Mrs. Genevieve Harner of that city and Yngve Harner of Youngsville, became the bride of W. Arnold Swanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Swanson, Warren.

The Rev. Ira L. Livingston officiated for the double ring ceremony at 4.00 p. m.; Dean Reddick was at the organ and Gordon Odmark, Warren, was vocalist.

Escorted by her father, the bride was beautifully gowned in white Dupioni silk, fashioned with a scalloped neckline embroidered with sequins, cap sleeves complemented with long white gloves, and a bouffant skirt. A cap encrusted with sequins and seed pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion and her cascade bouquet combined the newlyweds are at home at 225 Central avenue, Warren. The bride graduated in 1952 from JHS and in 1955 from Millard Fillmore Hospital School of Nursing in Buffalo, is employed at Warren State Hospital. Mr. Swanson, Warren High graduate in 1948, served two years in Korea with the U. S. Army, is presently employed at the State Hospital, and plans to resume studies at Pennsylvania University in February.

Pre-nuptial hostesses for the bride were Mrs. Frank Carr, Mrs. Ralph Hoffman, Mrs. Frank Spear, JoAnne Harner, Mrs. Arvid Swanson, Helene Lawson, Irmgard Krumholz, Mrs. Allen Payne, the latter two of Buffalo. Flower girl was the bride's small niece, Marcia Elaine Fisk of Chancellors Valley, wearing white crystaletta and a headband of pink carnation tufts and carrying a basket of assorted flowers.

Groomsmen were Francis Carr of Warren, as best man; Edward Watson, Punxsutawney, Francis Masterson and Ralph Hoffman, Warren, who ushered.

Wearing pink rosebud corsages, the bride's mother chose mauve lace, with matching hat, and black accessories, and Mrs. Swanson selected aqua accessories with black crepe.

The reception for 150 guests followed in the Guild Hall, where aides were Kathryn Brown and June Anderson, Buffalo; the bride's sister, Mrs. Frank Spear, Chancellors Valley; her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Harner; and two nieces, Susan and Judy Ann Fisk, who managed the guest book.

Time For Happiness Fund Gifts Here Once Again

Along with the holiday season each year, when readers are busy engaged with their Christmas greeting and gift lists, they are asked by the Children's Aid Society of Warren County to keep in mind the many youngsters whose principal remembrances are made possible by the CAS Happiness Fund.

A glimpse over the shoulder of the CAS workers has revealed a number of instances where real pleasure has been provided some youngster through the Happiness Fund and readers are urged to watch for these thumbnail sketches in succeeding issues of the Times-Mirror.

With many friends in the community lending an assist, gifts to the Happiness Fund need not be large ones, even the smallest contributions adding up to a helpful sum when the Children's Aid Society shoppers start out to do their very special Christmas shopping.

Checks may be mailed to The Happiness Fund, PO Box 628, Warren, Penn'a.

MR. AND MRS. TOMMY F. THOMPSON

A pretty winter wedding was solemnized in the Oxford, Pa. Methodist church at 4:00 p. m. Saturday, December 1, when Miss Barbara Joyce Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Palmer of Oxford, was united in marriage with Tommy Fredrick Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew T. Thompson of Warren.

The chancel of the church was banked with palms, lacy ferns and white chrysanthemums, forming a lovely setting for the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev.

James H. Bailey, Mrs. John Wilson, Rising Sun, Md., was at the organ console and accompanied the soloist, Edward Gilpin, of Havre de Grace, Md.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of skinner's lace satin topped by a delicate yoke of re-embroidered Alencon lace, alight with sequins and baby pearls and forming a sabrina neckline. Satin sleeves were long and ended in petals over the hands, the bouffant skirt had scalloped shirred banding from the waistline and ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was arranged from a cap decorated with sequins and baby pearls, and her cascade bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Elsie M. Bard, Oxford, was maid of honor, bridesmaids were Mrs. Harlan Cooper and Mrs. Edward A. Hamilton of Oxford, friends of the bride, Miss Shirley J. Goodwin and Miss Janice A. Goodwin, cousins of the bride.

They were dressed alike in graceful gowns of Christmas-red velvet, made with scoop necklines featuring soft pleats and short sleeves, floor length bouffant skirts gathered from the waistline and finished with a butterfly bow. Their headresses were matching bandeaux of velvet leaves and face veils in the same shade, and all carried cascade bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

Jack Bliss, Warren, served as best man; ushers were Marvin L. Orr, Cambridge, O., Robert G. Marquette, Pottstown; Davis M. McCoy, Templeton, Pa., and William C. Zook, Washington, Pa.

The bride's mother chose a dress of taupe wool crepe, with brown and beige accessories and a light green orchid. Mrs. Thompson was in navy blue, with blue and white accessories and a white orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony, the reception was held in the Oxford Research Club, where the bride's table was decorated with white chrysanthemums and centered with a beautiful four-tier wedding cake.

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will reside in their newly-furnished apartment on Locust street, in Oxford. For going away, the bride chose a charcoal suit, with black and white accessories and a white orchid.

Honoring the bride-elect was a tea given by Mrs. Andrew T. Thompson and several showers given at Oxford by her attendants. The rehearsal dinner was given by the senior Thompsons at the Post House.

Saron Lutheran Parish Holds Annual Meeting

Youngsville—Pastor C. J. Franzen was in charge of the annual meeting of Saron Lutheran church, following the opening hymn with prayer.

E. Leo Johnson was reelected church secretary; the pastor read his annual report, stressing an increase of 40 in parish membership, a successful fund appeal for the addition to the church, which it is hoped may be started early in 1957, and detailed report of church activities.

Chairman of the auditing committee, Claire N. Schnell, reported a complete audit of accounts, all found correct; the board of trustees was authorized to hire extra help for janitor work, and was asked to revise the proposed budget for approval or rejection by the board of administration at a later date.

Officers elected were as follows. Auditor for three years—Ethel Olson; reelected trustees for three years—Joe Swanson and Everett Rydholm; elected deacons for three years—C. E. Anderson, and reelected for the same term, Wendell Engstrom.

Edward Carlson, residing in Lakewood, N. Y., but member of the parish, was elected an honorary member of the board of deacons; Lillian Swanson was reelected choir director-organist, with Catherine Vicander as her assistant.

It was left to the board of administration to find a delegate to the New York Conference session to be held in Jamestown in May, also to elect some person to attend the Warren District meeting during the summer, the place and date to be announced later.

OPEN HOUSE FOR MR. AND MRS. CARR. Children of Mr. and Mrs. John Carr, Sr., Main street extension, Youngsville, will hold open house at the family home on Sunday, December 16, in honor of their parents' 40th wedding anniversary. The hours will be from two until four in the afternoon, seven until nine in the evening, and all relatives and friends are cordially invited.

STARBRICK AUXILIARY

Members of Starbrick Firemen's Auxiliary are reminded to bring items for the Sunshine Basket to their monthly meeting at 8:00 o'clock tonight in the fire hall. A social time will follow the business session, and refreshments will be served.

"Hansel and Gretel"

Youngsters of the area will have an opportunity of seeing the fairy tale "Hansel and Gretel" brought to life in Beaty Junior High School auditorium Sunday afternoon, December 16, at 2:30 p. m.

The production will be presented in the form of a pantomime, interspersed with songs, dances, and narration. The running time has been limited, especially for the children, to one hour in length; special emphasis has been placed upon the tempo and plot to hold the children's imaginative interest from start to finish.

Produced and directed by Richard Rapp, featured roles are to be carried by the following: Anne Lewis—Gretel; Diane Anderson—Hansel; Marlene Mascaro—Father; Penny Gigliotti—Mother; Helen McClure and Patty Lowe—Bears; Pam Sundheimer—Cat; Penny Barley, Heidi Link, and Anne Archibald—Butterflies, Anna Unger—Witch; Jeanne Anderson—Dew Fairy; Jill O'Hara—The Sandman.

Narration will be by Don Sagramoso, with a special introduction by Barbara Bibeau. Sets are by Mrs. Edith O'Hara, with costumes by Miss Audrey DuHart.

Tickets are on sale by all east members, or may be had by contacting Richard Rapp, 999 Pleasant Drive, Warren.

BEATHEA CIRCLE

The Beathia Circle of Epworth Methodist church will meet at 8:00 p. m. Thursday at the home of Marian Stewart, members to bring a 25-cent grab-bag gift and clippings for scrapbooks.

Civic Orchestra's Holiday Concert At Beaty Enthusiastically Received

Despite Sunday's wintry weather, an estimated 350 persons gathered in Beaty Junior High School auditorium Sunday afternoon to enjoy the holiday Pop Concert presented by the Warren Civic Orchestra under the able direction of Harry A. Summers.

Annotated programs served the triple purpose of making individual selections more enjoyable, of providing words for familiar carols, and of wishing the beholder "a joyous holiday season" in the name of the orchestra.

Opening the program was Leroy Anderson's arrangement of Handel's "Song of Jupiter", beautifully played as a trumpet solo by Harold McNulty.

Reeds and flutes were shown to good advantage in the Didon Over-

Orchestral accompaniment added a different touch in the community carol sing led by Mr. Summers, with audience participating enthusiastically.

Returning to the printed program, the orchestra then offered a modern group, Dancing Violins by Winkler-Edwards and the familiar Autumn Leaves. Mrs. James Potter appearing as soloist on the Philomel Club's concert grand piano in the second composition.

Concluding, the orchestra offered a spirited samba, Copacabana by Walters.

The entire program was enthusiastically received and friends will look forward to the mid-winter concert the orchestra will offer during the new year.

Ruth Millett

Why is a Folksy Pose An Asset for a Candidate?

I DON'T know who is stage-managing Adlai Stevenson's TV appearances.

But somebody ought to tip off the Democratic nominee for president that they're making him just too folksy.

One night recently he appeared on our television screens carrying a big sack of groceries up to the door of his home.

A shot of a presidential candidate carting in a week's supply of bacon and eggs is incongruous enough, but they didn't even let him put his sack down.

All the while he discussed political issues, he held firmly to the sack of groceries. He looked more like a suburbanite caught by a chatty neighbor than a presidential candidate with an important message for the people.

Of course that was the whole idea. But why? Where does the idea that the American people want everybody to be folksy originate from?

Why would anyone think we who watch TV would be more impressed by a candidate talking politics from behind a paper sack than from behind a desk? If an important man has something important to say to an audience of millions, why can't he say it in character?

A LESSON FROM MARILYN MONROE

MARILYN MONROE could teach Stevenson's stage managers an important lesson: Don't strain to be folksy. Just be yourself.

Who ever saw, or wants to see, a picture of Marilyn Monroe down on her hands and knees scrubbing a kitchen floor?

And who wants to see a candidate for the highest office of the land delivering a speech on world affairs from behind a sack of groceries?

Please, Mr. Candidate. Don't let 'em kid you into thinking that if you are just your own dignified self you won't get a hearing. Don't think you have to remind us of the man next door.

We like the man next door, sure. But it never occurs to us he might make a good president.

Presbyterian Unit Remembers Needy

Mrs. L. W. Hull entertained the May R. Stone Group of First Presbyterian church at her home, 446 Prospect street, Monday evening. She was assisted by Mrs. W. H. Cannon and Miss Esther Stohl, co-hostesses.

Mrs. C. Paul Arnold read the Christmas story, an item from the Reader's Digest entitled "Hope of Christmas", and led members in repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Cannon, president, opened the business meeting by calling for reports from the secretary and treasurer, Margaret Whitcomb and Esther Stohl. After these reports had been approved, the group voted to contribute $10 to each of the following: The Stokes Fund, Happiness Fund, the Sunday School, the Deacons' Fund of the church, to Rev. Carl Geores and to an unfortunate family.

Following the report of Mrs. Harold M. McNulty concerning memorial gifts, members voted to purchase two flags for the church sanctuary with money from the Marjory Hamm Memorial Fund.

Mrs. R. E. Siles, chairman of the White Gift Service, invited the women to attend that service, which will be held in the Presbyterian Sunday School Room at 4:00 p. m., December 23rd.

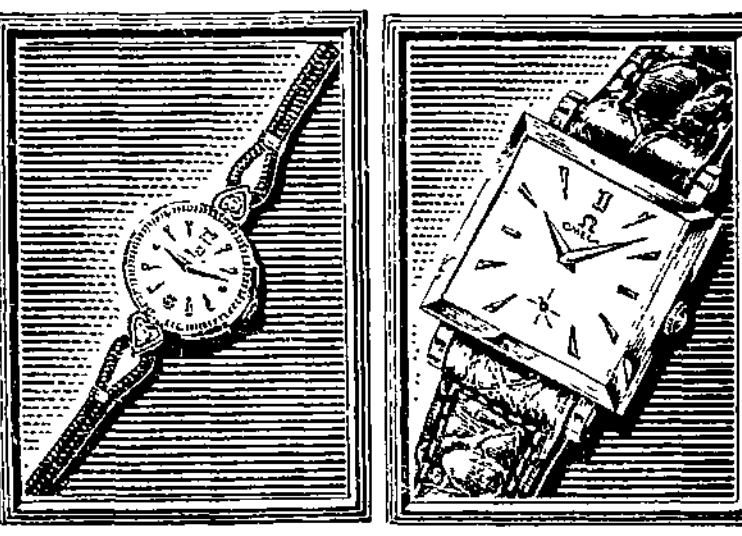

Mrs. Cannon appointed Mrs. T. H. Millemus and Mrs. Bertha Clark to serve as the nominating committee. Mrs. C. L. Thompson was welcomed as a new member.

After the business meeting, refreshments were served from an attractive table, spread with a white cloth bordered with a red Christmas pattern. In the center of the table Christmas greens surrounded a big, red candle. Four more red candles and Christmas ornaments on the buffet added to the Christmas atmosphere. Mrs. Clifford Johnson and Mrs. C. Paul Arnold poured.

Mrs. Ernest Hagenlocher is chairman of hostesses for tea to follow the program, assisted by Mrs. Nels Anderson, Mrs. Lester Blair, Mrs. A. F. Dunham, Miss Anna Grandin, Mrs. Nelson Johnson, Miss Montana Knapp, Mrs. H. M. Putnam, Mrs. Lyle N. Schuler and Mrs. J. T. Valone.

Columbia University is providing 10 scholarships for students who have had to flee Hungary from the Soviet invasion.

YOUNGVILLE WSCS CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Youngville—Christmas was the theme of both decorations and program at the WSCS meeting held in the Methodist church parlors. Mrs. Hugh Schuler, president, conducted the meeting, when members voted a gift to the Stokes Fund, also to the Hungarian Relief Fund, and for other projects.

In devotions conducted by Mrs. Clifford Wing, Christmas celebrations of missions in Florida, Angola, and Pakistan were reviewed. Kathy Adams was in charge of the program, reading several selections; Dora Benedict and Sallie Haley sang a beautiful duet, accompanied by Marion Zolko; and Miss Zolko played a piano solo.

Concluding, refreshments were served by the committee, Mrs. John Kirk, Mrs. John Knapp, Mrs. Jesse Lyon, Mrs. Ronald Thompson, Mrs. Perry Hill, Sr., and Mrs. Orval Borton.

TRUTH SEEKERS CLASS

The Truth Seekers Class of Grace Methodist church will entertain children of the Ruth M. Smith Home at Sheffield for their annual Christmas party Tuesday evening. A tureen dinner at 6:00 will be in charge of Mrs. Mildred Schorman, with Mrs. Florence Anderson planning gifts for the children. All members are asked to bring their own table service.

SPECIAL REHEARSAL

Junior choir members of Grace Methodist church will meet at 7:00 p. m. Wednesday for a special rehearsal with the senior choir. This practice period is in addition to the regular junior rehearsal at 3:45 p. m. the same day.

RUTH CIRCLE

Members of the Ruth Circle Sunday School Class of First Methodist church will have a tureen dinner and Christmas party at 6:00 p. m. Wednesday at the church. Each is asked to bring a tureen, table service, and penny bag. A special offering will be taken for the Happiness Fund.

CEMC HOLIDAY PARTY

Ernest Huber will serve as general chairman for the Christmas dinner and party of the Christian Business Men's Committee, to be held in the form of a tureen dinner at 6:30 p. m. Saturday at the YMCA, with the ladies as guests.

The Mature Parent

You Can Overcome Qualms About Sex Explanations

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

BEFORE Alan's sister was born, his mother told him the facts of birth.

Two years later his pretty, pregnant Aunt Lisa came for a visit. Told her news, Alan was at first delighted with the prospect of acquiring a cousin. Then he became alarmed lest it be another girl. At dinner he asked for reassurance. Turning to Aunt Lisa, he said, "Did you swallow a girl seed or a boy seed to grow this baby?"

Later, his parents admitted their obligation to instruct him in what sex education pamphlets call the "male role in conception." But they didn't admit their reluctance to instruct him. They were terribly ashamed of it, sure that it made them nasty-minded people with guilt complexes about sex. So Alan's mother said, "I think it should come from you" and his father said, "Who? Me? You're his mother, aren't you?"

THEIR reluctance derives not from guilt but from frustration. If they'll start approving the frustration instead of condemning it, they will soon outgrow it.

It's to be approved because it is natural. Alan's parents are actively in love with one another. It is frustrating for them to feel obliged to explain adult sex activity to their six-year-old son because this activity has emotional meaning for them it doesn't have for the son. It offends them to have to disentangle it from the intense feeling they associate with it. In a very real way, sex instruction of their son means a kind of disloyalty to each other.

I THINK that parents' shyness in giving sex instruction to children is sometimes due, not to Puritanical recoil, but to this kind of conflict between loyalty to adult feeling and loyalty to the child.

Let's remember that the professional people who think sex instruction should be very simple for us have been specially trained for remote, scientific interest in human behavior. When they speak of "sex activity," they are seldom thinking about their own.

We are. When a child wants it explained, we respond out of memory of our own, not out of our memory of other people's case records. And we may rush instinctively to protect the privacy of our personal experience in it.

If we accept this shyness as good and natural, so will the child. He'll wait comfortably until we have overcome it. How soon we overcome it depends on how soon we stop condemning our shyness as bad and Puritanical.

Gathered From The Party Line

The Party Line seems to have lived up to its name in authentic manner in the Monday issue, with confusion on all sides necessitating a number of corrections today.

First off, Dave Gibb was credited with coming home to see his newborn daughter and son, when everyone knows it was his niece and nephew, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibb.

Secondly, Mrs. Ebby Nelson, 221 West 17th street, Erie, was reported in St. Vincent's Hospital in that city, when it is her husband who is recuperating satisfactorily following surgery. Apologies are extended to both families and we'll try to keep our good ear to the Party Line hereafter.

Miss Nancy Ennis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Coole of North Warren, returned Monday after spending a pleasant weekend at Penn State, where she attended the Military Ball as the guest of Rae C. Seely.

Mrs. Robert McDonald, Buffalo, N. Y., is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. L. P. Walters, Pennsylvania avenue, west.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stephens, Central avenue, and Mrs. James Beach, Pleasant township, have returned from Mesopopen, Pa., where they were called by the serious illness of their father, William T. Stephens.

KIWANIS PROGRAM

Dr. A. C. Schultz minister of First Methodist church, will bring a Christmas Message at the luncheon-meeting of Kiwanis Club at noon Wednesday in the YWCA activities building. One week from Wednesday, December 19, Kiwanians will entertain their ladies for a special program and lunches.

Of particular interest is a warning notice in the general information pages in the front of the book which points out that Pennsylvania now has a law that provides for a fine or imprisonment or both, upon conviction, for failure to relinquish a party line in case of an emergency.

An emergency is defined "as a situation in which property or human life are in jeopardy and the prompt summoning of aid is essential."

It is also an offense, subject to the same penalties, to obtain use of a party line by falsely stating that it is needed for such an emergency call.

Going Steady Is Called "Morally Wrong" by Friar

Loretto (P)—St. Francis College, a co-educational Roman Catholic institution, has banned students from "steady dating" under threat of expulsion.

The order has been posted on school bulletin boards and signed by the Rev. Vincent R. Negherben, dean of the school and a member of the Third Order Regulars of St. Francis, which operates the college.

St. Francis was a boy's school until 1946 when it began admitting girls. Of the current enrollment of 800, about 150 are girls.

Father Negherben's order stated:

"1. Steady company keeping is a practice which should lead to marriage in the very near future.

"2. The practice of 'going steady' is morally wrong, therefore, for college students.

"3. 'Going steady' means: dating of each other to the exclusion of everyone else; frequency of association excluding all others; continuous informal dating as the walking to and from classes, meals together, events, meetings, etc.

"4. Those who persist in this practice will be barred from attendance at St. Francis College.

"We are not against dating. But we are against excessive dating and particularly when it is with the same individual."

Shopping for the College Cupboard

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Correspondent

YELLOW SPRINGS, Ohio—(NEA)—When Mary Porter packs her four children into the family jalopy and heads for the general store these days, the top item on her shopping list is a dozen bottles of self-pickling flux.

Time was when the priority went to a large mercenary Venus, but she found that at the fish market. She's still in the market, though, for a breed and brew counter, a fume scrubber and a couple of pressure glands, any size.

These exotic provisions aren't for the family cupboard. They're for the various departments at Antioch College where the slim, 35-year-old brunette is chief purchasing agent.

The art department needs the flux in processing metals; biology wants the mercenary Venus, which is a little neck clam. A breed and brew counter checks bacteria in milk and cream at the experimental farm; the fume scrubber is for the chemistry lab, and a pressure gland is a wire electrode.

Right now she's heading for an even bigger job—and if her eyes sparkle as she contemplates spending $600 to outfit the upcoming Union building, what woman will blame her?

Her job started innocently enough back in 1945 when she and her husband paid a return visit to Antioch, their alma mater.

"Before he knew it, someone had given Bob a carload of lumber and he was in business as a building contractor," she explained. "I began as Antioch's dormitory supervisor; the purchasing agent job just grew on me."

Mrs. Porter's first training in large-scale interior decorating and furniture buying came in 1947 with construction of Birch Hall, a women's dormitory.

"That was a break for me," she said, "since the building was done as a package by the architect, for purposes of computing my GI allowance."

A. Your school determines the number of hours considered to be full-time. VA accepts the word of your school. For graduate training, there are no minimum number of hours specified in VA regulations, as there are for other types of training.

What she learned has, to date, carried her through three major construction projects on the campus in the last two years: two dormitories (one new and one rebuilt after a fire) and the library.

The library, she said, was the most fun.

"I used 26 different wall colors in 26 rooms," she said softly, practically purring with pleasure. "And that all-male library staff only egged me on by continually asking 'Why limit yourself?'"

As for boners, Mrs. Porter acknowledged a few.

One concerns the 110 pillows she forgot to order for the beds in the new dormitory. She shrugged that one off with a "Who sleeps on a pillow these days?"

The bulletin boards which don't always retain thumb tacks? "But these looked so pretty, bare," she protested, laughing. "I was so intent on getting good-looking ones that I forgot about announcements. And, anyhow, how often do you see announcements on a bulletin board?"

Mrs. Porter's advice to young homemakers about to embark on a spring redecorating binge is simple.

"Be careful. Don't be afraid of color but check your wardrobe to find out what colors you look well in. If you have a man in mind, stick some blue in somewhere. They like it. I don't know why, but it's the only sex-linked judgment I've come across."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. I know a young man who is eligible for War Orphans schooling. He is a Korea veteran and has had some training under the Korean GI Bill. Does that mean he has forfeited his rights to War Orphans education?

A. Not necessarily. He must deduct the amount of Korean GI training he has had from 36 months—the maximum under the War Orphans program. The difference represents the length of time he may attend school under the War Orphans education program.

Q. Is there any deadline for applying for disability compensation?

A. No. You may apply at any time during your life. However, if you file your application within one year of the date of your discharge, your compensation payments may be back-dated to the day after you got out of service. If you wait longer than one year, payments may be made effective as of the date of application only.

Q. I sold my house and let the buyer take over my GI loan. But VA relieved me of all liability. Since I am no longer liable for the loan, would I be eligible for another GI loan?

A. No. Relief from liability does not necessarily entitle you to another GI loan.

Q. I'm getting my master's degree under the Korean GI Bill. What is considered full-time training?

CARE Issues First Public Report On Aid to Hungarians

Pittsburgh—CARE has issued its first public report on aid to Hungarian refugees in Austria and needy families inside Hungary, indicating distribution of $176,000 worth of food, clothing and other supplies.

Nancy Corman, Director of the Pittsburgh CARE office, announced that contributions totalling more than $19,500 have been received thus far at the local CARE office, with headquarters in Kaufmann's.

A breakdown of distributions to date shows that CARE's team in Austria has distributed 13,000 woolen blankets, 7500 welcome kits containing everyday necessities, and a number of special student clothing packages. Eleven thousand food packages have been rushed to Vienna from CARE stockpiles in Italy. An American CARE man is now in Hungary supervising distributions of ten tons of CARE food drawn from the CARE warehouse in Yugoslavia.

Miss Corman urged more public contributions to the CARE campaign. Contributions in any amount should be earmarked "Hungarian Emergency Fund" and sent to CARE, Kaufmann's, Pittsburgh 19, or to offices of the Railway Express Agency, which accepts CARE donations as a public service.

The National Art Gallery in Washington, D. C., is the largest completely air conditioned art museum in the world.

EARLY PROGRAMS FOR CHURCH EVENTS

With a number of churches and Sunday schools planning special Christmas programs for the coming weekend, pastors and others responsible for such announcements are reminded detailed plans should be in the hands of the Church Editor no later than noon on Wednesday. The same request will apply to such events planned for the Christmas services next weekend.

ERIE REQUEST REJECTED

President Eisenhower has turned down Erie city and county requests for federal funds to help defray costs of the recent snow emergency. In letters to Mayor Gardner and Commissioner Carl Proctor, state civil defense Director Richard Gerstell said the snow emergency did not fall within the meaning of Public Law 875, the one which defines major disasters.

FILES BIG SUIT

Jamestown Sun: A claim of $10,000 for injuries suffered by Mrs. Zelma F. Mudge of 158 South Main street, when she fell at Tenth and Main street while alighting from a bus, was presented at City Council meeting Monday night. The claim, entered by Mrs. Mudge and her husband, Henry B. Mudge, stated she received a severe fracture of the right ankle and other injuries. The claimants contend the pavement was broken and in need of repair at that point. The claim was referred to the claims and accounts committee.

GREETING SIGNS

The Penelec has erected a large Christmas greeting sign on its power plant building at Starbrick that excites many admiring comments from motorists. Another greeting that deserves special comment has been erected on the lawn of the Branch of the Warren National Bank at Tidoute, by the Chamber of Commerce of that thriving community. It was also noticed last evening that the Jaycees have repaired the huge sign in Crescent Park on the South Side.

BLAZE IN FIRE HOUSE

Johnsonburg firemen did not have to make a run to fight a fire there last week. It was right in their own building and due to gross carelessness. It broke out in the pump room of the East End Hose Company, causing an estimated $7,000 damage to the structure and equipment. Phil Hoh, foreman of the East End Hose company, said the fire was caused by a leaking five-gallon gasoline can stored in the building for emergency purposes. Hoh said the can was sitting near the main doors, about 10 feet from an open gas stove. About a pint of the fluid leaked out causing the blaze, Hoh said. The blaze was confined to the main portion of the building.

WHOPPING BUDGET

Titusville's City Council last week passed on tentative reading a whopping $469,253 budget—up $142,868 from last year. The largest share of this boost came in the sewage department where expenditures went up $39,998 as a result of the new sewage treatment plant going into operation there. Despite the mammoth increase, there will be no change in taxes. The real estate levy will remain at 7 mills; total per capita, $8; wage tax, a full one per cent with one-half to go to the Titusville Area Schools; mercantile tax, one-half mill on wholesale and one mill on retail; $25 on juke boxes; $5 on coin-operated radio or television; $25 on one-play machines and $50 on multiple-coin machines.

The exciting Ford Fairlane 500 Club Victoria (above)—over 17 feet long—is one of two new, bigger Ford sizes this year.

If you think it looks new... wait till you drive it!

... For there's where Ford's newness really pays off
... in melting mountains... in smoothing the bumps
... in straightening the curves

You can see that Ford's longer, lower Sculptured Look makes other cars look downright old-fashioned. But the part you can't see—the new "Inner Ford"—is what shows its stuff when you drive a Ford. It's completely revolutionary from the wheels up! And it feels it.

Ford's remarkable new, wider frame lets you sit sweet and low. It lets Ford hug the roads because of its lower center of gravity. And Ford's new front suspension, rear springs and new easy handling are part of the scheme to make you think every road is cloud-smooth.

The magic touch of the new Ford power plants makes mountains disappear. What looks like uphill feels like downhill. You get this surging power in a wide choice of new Silver Anniversary V-8 engines. Or you can choose Ford's new, more economical Mileage Maker Six, the most powerful Six ever offered in the low-price field.

There's magic in Ford's price tag, too! You won't believe this big new Ford is still priced Ford-low. But it is. Come in and test the magic of the new kind of Ford. It's a real "Wizard of Ah-h-h's!"

CHRISTMAS CAROL CONCERT - SUNDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1956

GRACE METHODIST CHURCH, WARREN, PA.

4:30 P.M. and 7 P.M.

Ten years ago this Christmas the original Warren Boy Choir sang its first program. Year by year under Director Byron L. Swanson the Choir has developed into a fine civic enterprise representing the cultural side of our community across the nation. Last May the Choir sang in New York's famed Town Hall before the leading newspaper critics of the city. The impressive performance led the New York Herald Tribune to describe the Choir in these words "A RARE AND REFRESHING MUSICAL PHENOMENON".

The Christmas concert will be the first local appearance since Town Hall. Everyone in the community is invited to attend one of the two concerts on Sunday, December 16. There is no admission charge. An offering will be taken.

Pittsburgh Hunter Dies Suddenly In Watson Twp. Camp

Edward F. Martin, 52, of 601 Highland Place, Bellevue, suburb of Pittsburgh, became Warren county's first victim of the 1956 deer hunting season when he died suddenly in a camp in Watson township, about five miles from Tidioute, last evening between 7:30 and 8:00 o'clock. The body was removed from Tidioute today to a funeral home in Bellevue.

According to information secured by Coroner Ed Lowrey, Martin, in company with three others from the Bellevue area, came to the camp last Tuesday. They were Noble Reeb, Walter Forster and Hilbert Snyder. They told the coroner that Martin had hunted until he became tired during the day. Returning to the camp he ate supper as usual and showed no signs of distress. However, soon afterwards he complained of being ill and suggested that he be rushed to a hospital. An ambulance was summoned from Tidioute but by the time it arrived he had passed away after complaining of severe pains in his chest. A certificate of death from a heart attack was issued.

Mr. Martin was an employee of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad at Bellevue. He is survived by a daughter.

FBI Agent Speaker For IMA Meeting

Eighty members and guests of the Industrial Management Association, attending the monthly dinner-meeting at the YMCA last evening, were given a very interesting presentation of the work of the Federal Bureau of Investigation laboratory.

Guest speaker was Special Agent James V. Kinnane, of the Erie office of the FBI, who also answered many questions concerning crime detection work of the Bureau.

Chairman of the meeting was IMA President Floyd W. Reed, of Paramount Furniture Company, and the invocation was given by Dan Walton, general secretary of the YMCA.

Chris A. Pepke led group singing of Christmas carols, with Lynn Keller at the piano. Featured entertainment, presented by Willis Tickner, was string trip music played by the Misses Judy Brecht, Karen Ericson and Patty Hudock.

PLEASANT FIREMEN

C. of C. Directors to Hold Meeting Tonight
The December meeting of the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce board of directors will be held tonight at the Blue and White restaurant. A number of committee chairmen will also attend the board meeting to make reports on recent project developments.

President Neil Culbertson will name a nominating committee which will be charged with selecting nominees for the 1957 Board of Directors to be elected in January.

Plans for the annual membership banquet on February 5 will also be revealed to the Directors.

McDOWELL IMPROVING
Jack J. McDowell, McKean county Republican chairman, and well known in Warren where he is a frequent visitor, has been discharged from Buffalo General hospital and is convalescing at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. McDowell in Bradford. Members of the family said Mr. McDowell is showing favorable recovery from a cranial hemorrhage and surgery performed two months ago in the Buffalo hospital.

One of the most popular gathering places for Germans in West Berlin is the American Memorial Library with its 180,000 books.

RED CROSS REPORT ON RELIEF FUNDS
Warren County Chapter, American Red Cross, reports contributions for the special Hungarian Relief Fund reached the total of $380 this morning. The quota assigned the local unit by national headquarters is $1,202 and all gifts will be welcomed by chapter headquarters, 404 Market street.

SURPLUS FOOD
County Commissioners remind that surplus food distribution will take place at the regular depots Wednesday. Commissioners delivered the foodstuffs Monday and today.

TICKETS ON SALE FOR MARINE BALL
Tickets for the annual Marine Corps League Christmas Ball at Marconi Outing Club December 25 have been placed in both the United Cigar Store and the B and B Smoke Shop as a convenience to overnight shoppers, it is announced today. Tickets are also available from any member of General Joseph Pendleton Detachment or by calling Marine Recruiter Joe Garland, 786.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. Romaine Grosch, 507 Coneywango avenue, has returned from WCA Hospital in Jamestown where she recently underwent eye surgery. Her condition is reported as satisfactory, and Mrs. Grosch is convalescing at the home of her father, 601 West street.

TIMBER BID
Trustees of the Rouse Home last week accepted a bid of $6,730 from John Morgan Lumber Company of Pittsfield for cutting of marked timber on Rouse property. Unsuccessful bidders were Fisher and Young of Titusville, $4,563, and Endeavor Lumber Company, $3,605.

DROP-INS WELCOME FOR BLOODMOBILE
Wednesday is the date; 10:00 a. m. until 3:45 p. m., the scheduled time; Red Cross Chapter headquarters at 404 Market street, the place. By this time, any reader will guess the answer: December visit of the mobile Blood Program equipment from Buffalo. Accidents and illnesses are no respecters of the holiday time, and the need for blood donors continues to be as great as on earlier visits of the Bloodmobile. Staff members will welcome drop-in visits by those unable to schedule an appearance in advance. Shortly before noon today, only 160 donors had been scheduled toward a desired 200.

MEETS TONIGHT
Youngsville—Newly-installed officers will be in charge of Brokenstraw Grange meeting tonight when, after routine business, plans will be made for a Christmas party for members and their families Wednesday, December 19. Colored slides will be shown this evening by R. C. Bailey of scenes he took in Florida and also local winter and fall scenes. A light lunch will be served. All members are urged to attend.

TONESTA BRIDGE PROJECT
State Highway Department engineers are surveying the old highway bridge on Route 62 over the Allegheny River at Tionesta to determine if possible improvements may be made there. However, no details on the survey or the type of possible improvements were available last night. H. S. Gahagan of Franklin acting district engineer, said he was not authorized to give out information on the work. Information about highway projects, he said, must be obtained from the department publicity office in Harrisburg.

SEVEN EMERGENCIES
An active day was reported yesterday at Warren General Hospital emergency ward, when the following received treatment: Virgil Myers, Warren, flash burns of eyes. Everett Abramson, Sheffield, lacerated fingers. Frank Yarzabek, Warren, lacerated left thumb. Matilda Holmberg, Warren, laceration of second, third and fourth fingers. Monty Hildum, Warren, laceration of right knee. Deborah Briggs, Warren, dislocated left elbow. John Bevevino, Warren, laceration of scalp.

WE GOOFED
How do we manage to goof so big? It ain't easy. Last night's issue of the Times-Mirror carried a picture of five smiling officers of the Purchasing Agents Association of Northwestern Pennsylvania, under the heading, "Personnel Association." And that's not all. Titles of the officers were all mixed up, so we are printing a correction right now. Left to right they should read: Joe Henchy, second vice president; H. W. Carlson, first vice president; Robert Jewell, secretary; Howard Edmonds, treasurer; and Harold Wickstrom, president.

Warsaw Scene of Wild Anti-Russian Outbreaks

By COLIN FROST
Warsaw (P)—A wild anti-Russian demonstration was reported today from the big Polish port city of Stettin. Demonstrators marched on the Soviet consulate, smashed windows and tried to break in.

Communist authorities finally called in troops and "workers' militia" — club-wielding strong-arm men — to disperse the crowd.

Official reports blamed the outburst on "drunken hoodlums". But reliable sources in Stettin said it was the outcome of a planned demonstration by students and young factory workers against events in Hungary.

The demonstration started early last night and continued until midnight. Government papers reported several policemen were beaten up and an undisclosed number of demonstrators arrested.

"Therefore," he said, "The Hungarian delegation will not participate in the work of the General Assembly as long as the present situation continues."

Asked by reporters whether he intended to boycott the entire session of the Assembly or just the Hungarian debate, Horvath said the boycott would continue as long as the Assembly debates the Hungarian situation.

Meanwhile, India and her three closest Asian allies pressed a new proposal to get Russian troops out of Hungary by sending U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to Moscow for negotiations.

Indian Delegate V. K. Krishna Menon was the prime mover behind the new plan as the 79-nation General Assembly continued its latest debate on the rebellion in Hungary.

Jamestown Trots on Beaty Hardwood Tonight

Red Raiders Lose to Academy Which Warren Beat, 62 to 40

By JACK PEDERSEN
Warren Dragons will be looking for their fourth win in a row tonight as they match skills with those of Jamestown Red Raiders on Beaty hardwood. Game time is 8:15 with prelin at 7 p. m.

Dragons enter the floor with a 3 and 0 record, the latest win at the 63-43 expense of Kane's Wolves, always a rough contender. Raiders have a 2 and 1 record with a single setback against Erie Academy, beaten by Dragons in the season opener 62-40. Relatively strong, the Jamestown quintet must face a revengeful local five attempting to avenge the football rout.

Warren's high-scoring point getter, "Wink" Rickerson will be in action with teammates Lindquist, Danielson, Mohunkem and Dahl flanking.

Sam Battaglia and Wyman Ansley, who dumped in 43 of 66 points when Jamestown downed Falconer Friday night, will be a big threat to Dragon boardmen.

By all indications it promises to be a fast, riproaring game with plenty of action. TV-deserters are promised a good one.

Kansas State Tops First A.P. Poll Of College Games

By SHELTON SAKOWITZ
Kansas, spearheaded by seven-foot Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, tops the collegiate rankings in the first Associated Press basketball poll of the season.

The heralded sophomore averaged 45.5 points in the Jayhawk's two victories at home over Northwestern and Marquette. The sports writers and sportscasters seemed so impressed by Chamberlain's variety debut that 58 of the 106 participating in the balloting picked Kansas as No. 1.

Kansas accumulated 394 points with the standings figured on the basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second, etc. San Francisco, No. 1 team in the final AP poll the past two seasons, is runner-up with 875 points, including 18 firsts.

Kentucky, displaying another sophomore sensation in Johnny Cox, rolled up three straight victories to rank third in the listings with 514 points.

Louisville, National Invitational Tourney winner last March, is fourth with 403 points, two more than Southern Methodist, with 401. Rounding out the top 10 are North Carolina No. 6, Illinois No. 7, North Carolina State No. 8, Alabama No. 9 and Canisius No. 10.

The top 10 teams with first-place votes in parenthesis:

1. Kansas (58) 896
2. San Francisco (18) 875
3. Kentucky (6) 514
4. Louisville (6) 403
5. Southern Methodist (3) 401
6. North Carolina (4) 350
7. Illinois 338
8. N. C. State (2) 271
9. Alabama 252
10. Canisius (4) 225

Feller Reported Ready To Retire After 21 Years

Cleveland Baron Rookie Still Leading The Pack

Chicago (AP)—Bob Feller, the Van Meter, Iowa, ploughboy who grew up to become the major league strikeout king and one of baseball's greatest of all pitchers, has decided to retire from active service after 21 years with the Cleveland Indians.

A friend of Feller's advised The Associated Press today that the former fireballing right-hander, who turned 38 last month, had told him he had just about made up his mind to retire from the player ranks and accept an offer of a job in the Indians' front office.

Feller is now attending a meeting in New Orleans of the Baseball Players' Association of which he is president. He is expected to make his retirement announcement within a week or 10 days.

"Bob had his mind pretty well made up when I talked to him," Feller's friend declared. "At first he was determined to continue on the active list, if not with the Indians then with another big league club. Now I believe he is convinced he would be crazy to hang on."

Cleveland General Manager Hank Greenberg, who had offered the front office job to Feller, said he had received no word from the former Indian ace.

"I certainly hope it's true," Greenberg declared.

Cleveland Baron Rookie Still Leading The Pack

New York (AP)—Eli's challenges in the race for American Hockey League scoring honors stirred a bit during the past week, but the Cleveland Baron rookie maintained a four-point edge on runner-up Paul Lavree of Providence.

Eli accounted for four assists to raise his league-leading total to 40 points, including 23 goals, AHL high in that department. Lavree moved past Cleveland's Fred Glover into second place with 36 points. Glover is a point back.

Cleveland's Jimmy Moore retained his leadership in assists with 25 and Larry Ziehl of Hershey continued to spend the most time in the penalty box. He has drawn 90 minutes for infractions. Providence goalie Johnny Bower is the leading netminder, allowing a low of 2.53 goals per game.

A.P. Writer Finds Everything Normal In College Games

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Kansas has a myth playing center, Oklahoma A & M already has lost at home and Nebraska has beaten three Big Ten teams in three tries. But everything's normal in college basketball after all—Eddie Hickey and his St. Louis Billikens have knocked off Adolph Rupp's Kentuckians.

Hickey has a penchant for hitting the bluegrass baron like sour-mash on an empty stomach, and he did it again last night. Hours after the Wildcats had been granted the No. 3 spot in the first Associated Press poll of the season, the unranked, once-beaten Bills up and bopped 'em 71-70.

Harold Alcorn of the Billikens, a senior guard, outscored Kentucky 12-8 all by himself in one five-minute spurt midway through the final half and then put it away with two foul shots in the closing minutes. He finished with 24 points.

Since coming to St. Louis, Hickey has beaten the Rupp four out of seven.

Kentucky was the only member of the newly elected top 10 in action last night, although three teams in the second 10 were at it. Western Kentucky No. 12 made it 3-0 with a 95-74 breeze past New Mexico A & M; Oklahoma A & M No. 19, after dropping a home game to Washington, made it 4-1 with a comeback, 59-50 decision over Arkansas; and Seattle (No. 20) gained a 4-1 standing with a 47-44 job on Santa Clara.

In conference play, Maryland gained a tie for the Atlantic Coast lead with Duke by defeating Wake Forest 59-53.

Nebraska kept the heat on the Big Ten by defeating winless Wisconsin 53-51 as Gary Reimers and Don Smidt hit two foul shots apiece to break a 49-all tie with 3:25 left.

Pennsylvania results:
Juniata 89, Shippensburg Teachers 80; Mansfield Teachers 63, Lycoming 53; Lebanon Valley 74, Albright 63; Rider 79, Susquehanna 64; Indiana 73, Butler 68; Duquesne 73, St. Francis (Pa.) 61; Wilkes 63, Moravian 82; Bethany (W. Va.) 70, Waynesburg 62; West Chester Teachers 49, Millersville 43.

Two Trades Give The Chicago Cubs Couple Backstops

By JOE REICHLER
Chicago (AP)—The Chicago Cubs, who only 24 hours ago were desperately seeking to strengthen their catching department, had two new backstops today after the purchase of Charlie Silvers from the New York Yankees and the acquisition of Ray Katt in a 10-player trade with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Katt, a .247 hitter who eluded 13 home runs last season, came first. With him came pitchers Tom Foholsky and Jackie Collum and infielder Wally Lammers, who was immediately shipped to the Cubs' Los Angeles farm club in the Pacific Coast League.

Two other players, of minor league caliber, have been promised by the Cardinals no later than March 1. These players will be sent to the Yankees along with $10,000 for Silvers.

In return for the Redbird flock, the Cubs sent pitchers Sam Jones and Jim Davis, catcher Hobie Landrith and utility man Eddie Miksis. Jones, who pitched a no-hitter against Pittsburgh May 12, 1955, and Foholsky, who hurled a 22-inning game while with Rochester back in 1950, were the biggest named in the transaction. Each had a 9-14 record last year.

Giambra Hot After Go With Giardello

San Francisco (AP)—Joey Giambra, an ex-GI middleweight boxer from Buffalo, N. Y., called for another bout with Joey Giardello "any place" after beating Rocky Castellani again last night.

Giambra already has battled Giardello twice, losing the first time and then squaring accounts. He feels another victory could put him in line for a shot at the 160-pound title.

Last night before 8,500 fans who paid $31,522, the 24-year-old, 157 1/2 pound Giambra rallied after losing the first three rounds. The 29-year-old Castellani from Cleveland weighed 160.

In both the fourth and fifth stanzas, Joey scored heavily with combinations to the head and Rocky appeared wobbly although saying after the bout that he had not been in trouble. A small cut was opened alongside his left eye in the fifth but didn't bother him.

In fact, said Castellani, "I thought I won the fight, but I can't seem to get a decision here in San Francisco."

He had lost here to title champion Bobo Olson in a title match, and also to the present middleweight king, Sugar Ray Robison. Giambra said his foe gave him more trouble last night than four months ago when he also caught a unanimous nod.

Practice Produces Natural Look

A soft and natural look in make-up for holiday parties is the prettiest one for teen-agers. This teen-ager achieves it through use of a brush to draw her lip line, followed by a fill-in with lipstick. Used skillfully, the brush can make a pretty lip line where one did not exist. After light application of liquid powder base (center) she highlights cheekbones with dab of petroleum jelly for a young, dewy look. And though she uses a full glamor treatment for eyes (right), she applies eyeliner and eyebrow pencil with a light hand. And she uses a touch of petroleum jelly as eye-shadow base since it helps it to spread easily.

BY ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor

Most families join in unanimous approval when their teen-age belle goes glamorous for holiday parties. Even parents who frown on make-up for every-day wear are proud when their school girl becomes a lovely young lady, beautifully groomed for a gay holiday evening.

But the effect of make-up can be happy or disastrous, depending on how it is applied. And it would be wise to perfect the art before the exciting round of seasonal festivities begins.

When you choose a powder base, be careful about light colors. It's better for your base to be a shade darker than your skin tone than for it to be too light. A rose tint will add sparkle for evening wear.

When you've applied the base from the neck up to the hairline, blot it with tissue so that you've created a soft look, not a mask.

Use rouge only if your complexion is sallow. A liquid or cream rouge, lightly applied to the cheeks, gives a natural glow. Then fluff on a light-textured powder with cotton and dust off the excess. If you prefer the dewy look, you can omit the powder altogether.

A thin film of petroleum jelly over the eyelids will emphasize your eyes subtly and act as a base for your shadow. Use the petroleum jelly, too, to slicken your eyelashes and smooth your brows into line.

Eyeshadow, in a color that picks up the shade of your eyes, should be lightly applied and blended into the petroleum jelly base. Use mascara only if you need it. If your lashes are naturally dark, the petroleum jelly alone is enough.

Since cosmetics should have a softening effect, darken your eyebrows only if they are too light.

Lipstick should be applied after your lips are outlined with a lipstick brush so that the line will be even and unsmudged. Blot away the excess, for if your lipstick is too bright, your mouth will detract attention from your eyes. Soft, rose tones are smartest for teen-agers whether blonde or brunette.

Learning to apply make-up properly is fun. And the result is a flattering, natural look that will do justice to the prettiest holiday party dresses.

AWOL Soldier Admits Starting Church Fires

Cambridge, Mass., (P)—A 6-foot-2, 18-year-old AWOL soldier who "got mad" when he failed to pry open poor boxes has admitted setting three church fires, including the million-dollar blaze that destroyed St. John the Evangelist Catholic church in Cambridge Saturday.

Fvt. Robert Whelan of nearby Somerville, former pupil at St. John's Parochial School, was quoted by police as saying he touched off the fire early Saturday by holding a big vigil candle to cassocks, surplices and other clothing in the sacristy.

Failure to ransom offering boxes in St. Joseph's Catholic church in Boston's West End Sunday and at St. John the Evangelist Episcopal church on Beacon Hill, Boston, Nov. 19, also led Whelan to set those churches afire, Detective John F. Galligan said.

Ike Has A Golfing Date For Good Neighbor Match

Augusta, Ga., (P)—A couple of ardent golfers—President Eisenhower and Canada's Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent—meet here today for a good neighbor match.

The 74-year-old Prime Minister was scheduled to arrive from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where he has been vacationing. After golfing with the President he will fly on to his home at Ottawa.

The President has been mixing work and vacation here at the Augusta National Golf Club since Nov. 26. Present indications are he will return to Washington Thursday.

COOK OF THE YEAR

New York (P)—Old-fashioned meat and dumplings won, a $25,000 grand prize and the title of "Cook of the Year" today for Mrs. Hildreth H. Hathaway of Santa Barbara, Calif., wife of a government trapper. Second prize of $5,000 in the eighth annual Pillsbury "Bakeoff" went to a junior contestant, Natalie R. Riggin, 15-year-old farm girl of Olympia, Wash., for her original "Hoot-owl cookies." Top award in the bride's division went to Mrs. Raymond E. Myers of Milan, Ill., for "Easy cheesy buns," a no-knead roll, flavored with American cheese. She won $3,000 for her recipe.

OPPOSE NEGRO TEACHERS

Atlanta, (P)—The Atlanta Public School Teachers Assn. voted unanimously last night to withdraw from the American Federation of Teachers at the end of this year rather than admit Negroes to membership. Announcement of the decision was made by Roger Derthick, association president and brother of Dr. Lawrence Derthick of Chattanooga, Tenn., who recently was appointed U. S. commissioner of education by President Eisenhower.

A large manufacturing organization in the Jamestown area offers an interesting and challenging opportunity in personnel work to an individual, capable of independent judgment and actions. Assignments will be varied and interesting. Typing, shorthand and the use of transcribing machines are of course essential. In addition the person chosen must be capable of handling the administrative details of a pension program, security program and etc., with a minimum of supervision. Paid vacation, group insurance and other benefits together with above average wages make this opening an excellent opportunity. Inquiries in confidence will be respected. Please write Box 205, c/o Warren Times-Mirror, Warren, Pa.
